

Free Tours at Your Local Federal Reserve Bank!

Visiting the City by the Bay? The San Francisco Fed offers one of the world's foremost collections of historic United States currency, and a look at cash processing too!

Highlights of San Francisco (SF) Tour

Fed Center: Exploring Your Nation's Central Bank lobby exhibit: The whimsical, thought-provoking icons and interactive exhibits invite you to discover how the Federal Reserve's functions are relevant to our lives.

Historical currency theatre and museum: Come view the most extensive collection of rare and valuable antique currency in the United States - including the Grand Watermelon Note of 1890.

There's a lot to learn about money! Personal finance training for students: Join us for a tour, then empower your students to take control of their finances. Students will learn how to develop a budget and learn the basics of saving, investing, and credit.

Tour Schedule

- Walk-in basis on Fridays at 12:00 noon. Tours last 60 minutes and include the historical currency and the lobby exhibits.
- The SF office offers group tours for 10 or more visitors of high school age or above. These pre-scheduled tours last 90 minutes Monday through Thursday at 9:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. The tour includes the cash vault, historical currency collection, and the Fed Center lobby exhibits.

"On behalf of all my students, thank you for the wonderful, informative, and engaging tour. We thoroughly enjoyed it!"

~ Ali Jason, Instructor, Beverly Hills High School

"I would like to thank you and your assistant for the GREAT tour of the Federal Reserve Bank (FRB) that you gave all 44 of us from Santa Catalina. Getting to see the vault was a great bonus. We had a wonderful day in San Francisco doing all sorts of things; however, when questioned the majority of the students indicated that their favorite for the day was the FRB...I hope we will be able to be back next year."

~ Mike Raggett, Instructor, Santa Catalina High School
